

Snehasparsham

Details (Snehasparsham)

The Government of Kerala has launched the “Snehasparsham” scheme to protect and help unwed mothers. As a part of this scheme, the Government is giving ■1000/- per month to them.

Objectives (Snehasparsham)

- The Government of Kerala has launched the “Snehasparsham” scheme to protect and help unwed mothers. The problems of unwed mothers are linked with various socio
- economic and cultural variables. In Kerala, this problem is coupled with the ignorance and exploitation of the backward classes. It has been pointed out that there are many women in Wayanad and other districts of Kerala who are victims of social exploitation and atrocities and are often forced to become unmarried mothers. Unwed mothers have a special need for education, employment, and health care especially reproductive and child health.
