

Beej Swalamban Yojna

Details (Beej Swalamban Yojna)

The main objective of starting the Mukhyamantri Beej Swalamban Yojana is to provide up to 50% subsidy by the Agriculture Department for providing seeds to the small and marginal general farmers of the state. By getting the benefit of this scheme, farmers will be able to produce good crops at low cost. This scheme of state funds was started as a pilot project in the Kota, Bhilwara, and Udaipur agriculture blocks of the state. By expanding the scheme from the year 2018-19, the scheme is being implemented in all the blocks of the state. Formation of farmers group :- Under the scheme, a group is formed by selecting farmers who are progressive and interested in the cultivation of a particular crop.

Objectives (Beej Swalamban Yojna)

- The main objective of starting the Mukhyamantri Beej Swalamban Yojana is to provide up to 50% subsidy by the Agriculture Department for providing seeds to the small and marginal general farmers of the state.

Important Features (Beej Swalamban Yojna)

- The main objective of starting the Mukhyamantri Beej Swalamban Yojana is to provide up to 50% subsidy by the Agriculture Department for providing seeds to the small and marginal general farmers of the state. Apart from this, free mini kits are to be provided to the farmers living below the poverty line. So that the farmers of the state take steps towards prosperity and self-reliance.
- Reliance by producing seeds in their fields. And they can be encouraged to produce seeds for use in their farm. By getting the benefit of this scheme, farmers will be able to produce good crops at low cost. Due to this their economic condition will also increase.

Benefits (Beej Swalamban Yojna)

- The seeds produced by the group of farmers will be used by the rest of the farmers for production in the next year.

Eligibility (Beej Swalamban Yojna)

- Farmers, who are interested in progressive and crop-specific farming.

Application Process (Beej Swalamban Yojna)

- Applicant farmers have to go to the Agriculture Department office or Krishi Vigyan Kendra of your district to get the benefit of Mukhyamantri Swalamban Yojana.
- Get the application form to apply under this scheme.
- Enter all the necessary information asked in the form carefully.
- Attach the required documents with the application form.
- Submit the application form to the same agriculture department.

Documents Required (Beej Swalamban Yojna)

- Copy of Aadhaar Card. Copy of Bank Passbook.

Document generated on 2025-11-15.