

Doodh Sanjivani Scheme

Details (Doodh Sanjivani Scheme)

The "Doodh Sanjivani Scheme" launched by the Women and Child Development Department, Gujarat, is a welfare initiative designed to improve the nutritional status of children and women in tribal and underdeveloped communities. The scheme benefits children aged 6 months to 6 years and pregnant and lactating mothers registered at Anganwadi centers. It covers 138 tribal and developing communities in 20 districts and is implemented through Anganwadi centers.

Objectives (Doodh Sanjivani Scheme)

- The "Doodh Sanjivani Scheme" launched by the Women and Child Development Department, Gujarat, is a welfare initiative designed to improve the nutritional status of children and women in tribal and underdeveloped communities.
- The scheme benefits children aged 6 months to 6 years and pregnant and lactating mothers registered at Anganwadi centers.
- It covers 138 tribal and developing communities in 20 districts and is implemented through Anganwadi centers.

Important Features (Doodh Sanjivani Scheme)

- The "Doodh Sanjivani Scheme" launched by the Women and Child Development Department, Gujarat, is a welfare initiative designed to improve the nutritional status of children and women in tribal and underdeveloped communities.
- The scheme benefits children aged 6 months to 6 years and pregnant and lactating mothers registered at Anganwadi centers.
- It covers 138 tribal and developing communities in 20 districts and is implemented through Anganwadi centers.

Benefits (Doodh Sanjivani Scheme)

- Nutritional Support for Children: 100 ml of fortified flavored milk is provided 5 days a week to children aged 6 months to 6 years.
- Nutritional Support for Mothers: 200 ml of fortified flavored milk is provided 2 days a week to pregnant and lactating mothers.

Eligibility (Doodh Sanjivani Scheme)

- The applicant must be a child aged 6 months to 6 years or a pregnant or lactating mother.
- The applicant must be registered at an Anganwadi center.
- ■

Application Process (Doodh Sanjivani Scheme)

- Step 1: Visit the nearest Anganwadi center.
- Step 2: Register yourself or your child with the Anganwadi center.
- Step 3: Provide the required documents.
- Step 4: Avail of the benefits during scheduled distribution days.

Documents Required (Doodh Sanjivani Scheme)

- Birth Proof for child. Identity proof (e.g.
- Aadhaar card
- ration card). Pregnancy proof for pregnant mothers (e.g.
- medical certificate). Any other document (if required).