

Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme

Details (Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme)

The "Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme (VCIS)" by the University of Delhi aims to provide students with experiential learning opportunities, integrating academic knowledge with practical work experience. This initiative aligns with the objectives of "Samagra Shiksha" (holistic education) as outlined in the NEP 2020. Objectives of VCIS, University of Delhi: Internship schemes allow young students to be associated with the university's work for mutual benefit.

Objectives (Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme)

- The "Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme (VCIS)" by the University of Delhi aims to provide students with experiential learning opportunities, integrating academic knowledge with practical work experience.
- This initiative aligns with the objectives of "Samagra Shiksha" (holistic education) as outlined in the NEP 2020.
- Objectives of VCIS, University of Delhi: Internship schemes allow young students to be associated with the university's work for mutual benefit.

Important Features (Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme)

- The "Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme (VCIS)" by the University of Delhi aims to provide students with experiential learning opportunities, integrating academic knowledge with practical work experience. This initiative aligns with the objectives of "Samagra Shiksha" (holistic education) as outlined in the NEP 2020. The VCIS allows students to work in various departments, centers, and institutes within the university, offering a unique platform to broaden their skills and gain real
- world experience. Objectives of VCIS, University of Delhi: Internship schemes allow young students to be associated with the university's work for mutual benefit. It will expose university students to the several departments/centres/ institutes existing within the University of Delhi. It will infuse in interns a sense of belongingness with the University system.

Benefits (Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme)

- Stipend: ■5,000/
 - per month for interns ■10,500/
 - per month for summer interns. NOTE: Stipend will be enhanced by 5% each financial year. ■
- Certificate: Receive a certificate of experience from the Dean of Students' Welfare. ■

Eligibility (Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme)

- The applicant should be a student. The students pursuing Final year/ Final Semester are not eligible.
- All bonafide full
- time regular students of the University of Delhi, studying in any course or stream at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels, are eligible. ■

Application Process (Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme)

- Apply Procedure: Step-01: The interested applicant visits the official website .
- Step-02: The applicant needs to fill out a Google Form to apply for the internship.
- Step-03: Fill in the required information and upload all the essential documents.
- ■ Note: List of selected candidates for the Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme show on the official website.
- ■ Selection Procedure: Based on assessment and interaction with the selection committee, comprising members nominated by the Vice-Chancellor.
- ■

Documents Required (Vice Chancellor Internship Scheme)

- Letter of Recommendation (issue from the Head of the Departments/Institution/College/ Centres).
Joining Letter. Any other document if required.

Document generated on 2025-11-15.