

Integrated Child Development Services Scheme

Details (Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

Detailed In Nagaland, the ICDS programme was launched in the year 1975 in the Jalukie block of Peren district with 50 Anganwadi centres. ■ Objectives To improve the nutritional and health status of children in the age-group 0-6 years; To lay the foundation for proper psychological, physical and social development of the child; To reduce the incidence of mortality, morbidity, malnutrition and school dropout; To achieve effective co-ordination of policy and implementation amongst the various departments to promote child development; and To enhance the capability of the mother to look after the normal health and nutritional needs of the child through proper nutrition and health education.

Objectives (Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

- ■ Objectives To improve the nutritional and health status of children in the age group 0-6 years
- To lay the foundation for proper psychological, physical and social development of the child
- To reduce the incidence of mortality, morbidity, malnutrition and school dropout
- To achieve effective co-ordination of policy and implementation amongst the various departments to promote child development
- and To enhance the capability of the mother to look after the normal health and nutritional needs of the child through proper nutrition and health education.

Important Features (Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

- Detailed In Nagaland, the ICDS programme was launched in the year 1975 in the Jalukie block of Peren district with 50 Anganwadi centres. The programme has since grown and at present, there are 60 (sixty) ICDS projects in 11 (Eleven) districts of the State. Of this 2 (two) are Urban projects, one is rural project and the rest are Tribal projects. All the 6(six) services under ICDS such as Supplementary nutrition, Health check up, Non formal pre-school education, Immunization, Nutrition & Health education and Referral services are being provided through a Network of 3980 Anganwadi centres in the State. Presently 60 (sixty) ICDS projects are operating in the state covering 3.45 Lakh beneficiaries under 3980 Anganwadi centres where all the 6 (six) services are provided to children in the age group of 0-6 years
- pregnant women and lactating mothers. ■ Objectives To improve the nutritional and health status of children in the age group 0-6 years
- To lay the foundation for proper psychological, physical and social development of the child
- To reduce the incidence of mortality, morbidity, malnutrition and school dropout
- To achieve effective co-ordination of policy and implementation amongst the various departments to promote child development
- and To enhance the capability of the mother to look after the normal health and nutritional needs of the child through proper nutrition and health education.

Benefits (Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

- Benefits The ICDS Scheme offers a package of six services, Supplementary nutrition. Immunization. Health check up. Referral services. Pre-school non-formal education and Nutrition & Health Education.

Eligibility (Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

- Eligibility The children up to the age of 6 years.

- Pregnant women.
- Lactating mothers.

Application Process (Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

- Application Process Applicants need to visit the nearest Anganwadi centres to avail the benefits of the scheme.

Documents Required (Integrated Child Development Services Scheme)

- List of the required documents Aadhaar Card Passport Sized Photograph Proof of Age / DOB Proof of Address.

Document generated on 2025-11-15.