

Amar Fasal Amar Gola

Details (Amar Fasal Amar Gola)

Though there are 24 lakh small and marginal farmers in the State, only around 10,000 such farmers would be covered initially under two schemes. Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee has named the schemes as Amar Fasal, Amar Gola (My Crop, My Storehouse) and Amar Fasal Amar Gari (My crop, my vehicle).

Objectives (Amar Fasal Amar Gola)

- The West Bengal Government had announced a pilot project to provide financial assistance to marginal farmers of the State so that they can have their own storehouses and vending carts.
- A subsidy varying between Rs.
- 5,000 and Rs.
- 25,000 will be provided for the warehouses.
- Though there are 24 lakh small and marginal farmers in the State, only around 10,000 such farmers would be covered initially under two schemes.

Important Features (Amar Fasal Amar Gola)

- The West Bengal Government had announced a pilot project to provide financial assistance to marginal farmers of the State so that they can have their own storehouses and vending carts.
- A subsidy varying between Rs.
- 5,000 and Rs.
- 25,000 will be provided for the warehouses.
- Though there are 24 lakh small and marginal farmers in the State, only around 10,000 such farmers would be covered initially under two schemes.
- Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee has named the schemes as Amar Fasal, Amar Gola (My Crop, My Storehouse) and Amar Fasal Amar Gari (My crop, my vehicle).

Benefits (Amar Fasal Amar Gola)

- The “Amar Fasal Amar Gola” scheme in West Bengal is aimed at providing financial assistance to farmers to help them purchase seeds, fertilizers, and other inputs needed for agriculture. The benefits of this scheme can be expected to include:
 - Improved crop quality: By providing farmers with access to high quality seeds and fertilizers, the scheme may help improve the quality of their crops, leading to better yields and higher income.
 - Increased agricultural productivity: The scheme may help farmers increase the productivity of their land by providing them with the resources they need to maintain and improve it.
 - Reduced financial burden: By providing financial assistance to farmers, the scheme may help reduce the financial burden associated with purchasing seeds, fertilizers, and other inputs, making it easier for them to invest in their farms.
 - Increased profitability: By improving the quality and yield of their crops, farmers who participate in the scheme may be able to increase their profitability, which could lead to an overall improvement in their standard of living.

Eligibility (Amar Fasal Amar Gola)

- The eligibility criteria for the “Amar Fasal Amar Gola” scheme in West Bengal may vary depending on the specific implementation of the scheme by the state government. However, some of the common eligibility criteria for such schemes include:
 - Residency: Farmers may be required to be residents of the state of West Bengal in order to be eligible for the scheme.
 - Agricultural land ownership: Farmers may be required to own agricultural land in the state in order to be eligible for the scheme.
 - Type of crop: The scheme may only be available for certain types of crops, such as food crops or cash crops.
 - Size of landholding: The scheme may have specific requirements for the size of the landholding in order to be eligible for financial assistance.
 - Previous participation: The scheme may have conditions regarding previous participation in other agricultural schemes.
 - Income criteria: Farmers may be required to meet certain income criteria in order to be eligible for the scheme.
 - It is recommended to contact the relevant authorities in the state of West Bengal, such as the Department of Agriculture or the Ministry of Agriculture, for a complete and up-to-date list of criteria.

- to
- date list of the eligibility criteria for the “Amar Fasal Amar Gola” scheme. ■

Application Process (Amar Fasal Amar Gola)

- The process of applying for the “Amar Fasal Amar Gola” scheme in West Bengal may vary depending on the specific implementation of the scheme by the state government.
- However, here are some general steps that may be involved in the application process:
 - Eligibility check: Check if you meet the eligibility criteria for the scheme, such as residency, land ownership, type of crop, size of landholding, income criteria, etc.
 - Obtain required documents: Gather the required documents, such as proof of residency, proof of land ownership, income statements, etc.
 - Submit an application: Submit a completed application form, along with all the required documents, to the relevant authorities in the state of West Bengal, such as the Department of Agriculture or the Ministry of Agriculture.
 - Review and approval: The authorities will review your application and supporting documents to determine if you are eligible for the scheme.
 - If your application is approved, you will receive a notification of approval and instructions on how to proceed with the next steps.
 - ■ It is recommended to check the official website of the state government of West Bengal or contact the relevant authorities directly for the most up-to-date information on the application process for the “Amar Fasal Amar Gola” scheme.
 - ■ Application Process: 1.
 - Application forms to be collected from Panchayat office or Block office.
 - 2.
 - Candidates to fill all the details to complete the form and attach all required documents as specified 3.
 - Submit application form with required documents in Panchayat office or Block office.
 - ■ Note: The exact application process may vary, so it is advisable to check with the relevant authorities for the most accurate information.
 - ■

Documents Required (Amar Fasal Amar Gola)

- 1. Proof and details of land holding 2. Aadhar Card 3. Voter ID Card 4. Ration Card 5. Passport Size Photo 6. Residential Certificate 7. Kisan Credit Card 8. Bank Account Details linked with Kisan Credit Card ■

Document generated on 2025-11-15.