Details (Supporting Community Radio Movement in India)

Community Radio is a form of local broadcasting that focuses on the needs and interests of a community.

■ The Scheme- The Government of India approved a Central Sector Scheme namely "Supporting Community Radio Movement in India" in 2012, which was lately extended for a period from 2021-22 to 2025-26 with an outlay of ■50 Crores (■ 50 Crores only). The mandate of the proposed scheme is to strengthen new and existing CR Stations with resources, capacity and technology, to promote growth of CRS, especially in remote and rural areas and to promote socio-economic and cultural development of communities as CRS is a powerful medium for social mobilization. Government has organized various Community Radio Workshops, Webinars and Regional and National Sammelans to promote awareness and peer learning among the CR sector stakeholders under the ambit of this Scheme.

Objectives (Supporting Community Radio Movement in India)

- Community Radio is a form of local broadcasting that focuses on the needs and interests of a community. The Community Radio is an important third tier in Radio Broadcasting, distinct from Akashwani and Private FM Radio. The Community Radio is built on the principles of access, participation and the ability to represent one's voice. It provides a platform to communities to air their voices on issues concerning their lives. The Community Radios are essentially low power FM Radio stations (having a coverage in the range of 5
- 10 Kms radius) that are meant to be owned, set up and operated by not
- for profit community based organizations and its contents are produced by and for the members of the community.
